Proceedings (IN CHAMBERS): ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

On August 30, 2022, Plaintiff Kalpesh Solanki (“Plaintiff”) filed a Complaint in this Federal Court. Electronic Case Filing Number (“ECF No.”) 1. The case was randomly assigned to Magistrate Judge Shashi H. Kewalramani under the Direct Assignment of Civil Cases to Magistrate Judges Program in accordance with General Order 12-02. Plaintiff in this case has not filed a request for summons nor has a proof of service has been filed. Plaintiff’s proof of service was due on or before November 28, 2022.

To date, Plaintiff has failed to file any proof of service or request an extension of time in which to do so. Therefore, since Plaintiff has not provided the Court with a proof of service of the Complaint, the Court is unable to determine the last date the parties have within which to file a statement of consent. Accordingly, Plaintiff is ORDERED TO SHOW CAUSE no later than December 12, 2022 why this Court should not recommend that the action be dismissed with prejudice for failure to prosecute. Plaintiff may discharge this Order by filing a proof of service.

The parties are reminded that, for the above-entitled case to proceed with the assigned Magistrate Judge, they must file and serve joint or separate Consent form(s), indicating whether each party consents to have a Magistrate Judge assigned to this case. Plaintiff must file the Consent form within forty-two (42) days after service of the summons and complaint upon the first-served defendant. Each defendant must file the Consent form within forty-two (42) days after service of the summons and complaint upon that defendant. If one or both parties fails to consent to the case proceeding before the assigned Magistrate Judge within the prescribed time, the case automatically will be re-assigned.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
